

We Cry to Jesus

A Setting of Psalm 44

♩ ~ 162

D DMaj7 D6 D Syncope verses as appropriate D DMaj7

Verse

1.O God, we have heard of your
2.O Is - ra - el's God, still to -
4.We shall not turn back nor a -

D6 D D DMaj7 D6

al - might - y deeds- with won - ders and signs you your peo - ple re - day you are king; in you we shall stand, of your name we shall ban - don our God though slaugh - tered as sheep or re - proved by his deemed. No, not by their sword did they con - quer the land; sing. For not by our sword will the dark - ness be crushed-

D A Bm G D

rod. A - wake from your sleep, come with pow'r from a - bove,

A Bm G A 1

de - liv - er - ance came by the strength of your hand. (2.O) we look to your son, in his cross we shall trust.
re - deem for the sake of your un - fail - ing love!

2 Bm DMaj7/A G F#m

3.But though you are king it would seem you have left- dis-

Bm A/C# G/D D A Bm

graced and a-shamed, sure-ly you shall re - ject. Now scat-tered and poor and despised by the world, our e-ne-mies taunt, "sure-ly God has not heard."

G F#m Em7 D/F# G A

We Cry to Jesus

Chorus

A Bm G A A Bm G A

"Ha - le - lu - jah!" we still sing in our sad - ness and suf - fer - ing.

Chorus

A G A A Bm G A

"Ha - le - lu - jah!" we still sing in our sad - ness and suf - fer - ing.

Em D/F# G Bm A G A D DMaj7

We look to the one who has lived our song - we cry to Je - - sus, Je - - sus. (4.We)

G/D D DMaj7 G

1st time to v4