

How Sweet

C G A<sup>m</sup> F C G F C G

1. How sweet and awe - some is the
 2. While all our hearts in prayer and
 3. Show mer - cy to the na - tions,

A<sup>m</sup> F C G F C G

place, with Christ with - in the doors, while e - ver - last - ing love dis - song join to ad - mire the feast, each won - ders now with thank - ful God! Con - strain the earth to come; Send Your vic - tor - ious Word a -

A<sup>m</sup> F C G F F G

- plays the choi - cest of her stores. Here all the mer - cy of our tongue, "Lord, why am I a guest? Why was I made to hear Your
 - broad, and bring the strangers home. We long to see Your church - es

C G/B A<sup>m</sup> F C G C G

God with vast com - pas - sion rolls; And peace and par - don through His voice and en - ter while there's room; When thou - sands made a wretch - ed full, that all the chos - en race may with one voice and heart and

A<sup>m</sup> F F G C F

Chorus

blood, is food for ran - somed souls. How sweet is the place choice and ra - ther starve than come. (alt.) How sweet is the place soul sing Your re - deem - ing grace. (Alt. chorus can be used before the sermon)

C G A<sup>m</sup> F C

You re - mind us of grace. See this bread and this wine - You have called You re - mind us of grace. On Your Word we will feast where de - lights us to dine.

G C G F

 nev - er cease.

Words by Isaac Watts (1674-1748) and David Ward. Music by David L. Ward.

© 2007 ReformedPraise.org, administered by Reformed Praise.

See the Reformed Praise copyright agreement for usage information.

Lead Sheet