

Light of Grace

♩ = 170

C G/B D G

2. What - 1. Come, Sa - vior Christ, our on - ly Lord, con -
 3. Now, Je - ev - er the an - cient pro - phets spoke the
 4. While now sus, the now the di - vine re - move The the text di - vine we read, with

C G/B D/F# G C

You great in - ter - pre - ter di - vi - ne, Ex - plain Your cern - ing You, O Christ, make kn-own; Chief sub - ject fol - ly of our and, dark - ened he-art; Un - fold the earn - est prayer and strong de - si - re, O may a

G/B D G C G/B

own trans - mit - ted Word, to teach and to in -
 of the sa - cred book, You did ful - fill, and won - ders in us Your love, the know - ledge of Your work in us pro - ceed our souls to quick - en

D/F# G C G/B

spire is Thi-ne: Y - ou o - n - ly ca - n Your - You a - lo - ne: Ye - t th - re our Lo - rd we self im - pa - rt: Ou - r ea - rs, our in - most and in - spi-re; Ou - r du - ll - ness he - lp, our

D7/F# Em C G G/D D se - lf re - veal, o - pen Your book and loose it's can - not see un - less Your Spi - rit rit give the sou - ls we bow, speak, Lord, to us by Your the ser - vants bli - nd - ness chase, and guide us by the light of

G

se - al.
 ke - y.
 no - w.
 gra-ce.

Words by Charles Wesley (1707-88). Music by David L. Ward.
 © 1999 ReformedPraise.org, administered by Reformed Praise.
 See the Reformed Praise copyright agreement for usage information.