1 The cross of Jesus calls my name
And draws me ever near
To make the bitter sweet again
And calm my every fear.
The cross of Jesus bore the burden
Of suff'ring and decay
Yet blooms with life and loveliness
And shines with endless day.

2 The cross of Jesus, lifted high
That all might see and live,
Has healed the serpent's poison bite
For all who would believe.
The cross of Jesus, where the curse fell
Upon the spot-less Lamb,
Twas there my debts were crucified
And e- vil put to shame.

3 The cross of Jesus- where I find
The tree of endless life;
Though once forbidden now is mine

^A ^{E/G#} ^B ^E
For I am one with Christ.

^B ^A ^E
The cross of Jesus, all my treasure-

^{C#m} ^B ^{A^{Maj}7} ^{F#m⁷} ^{B^{sus}4} ^B
The source of cease-less praise,

^E ^{A/C#} ^{B/D#} ^E ^{A/C#} ^{E/G#}
The sum of gospel promises,

^A ^{E/G#} ^B ^E
The well-spring of His grace.
