

My Heart Has Found Its Rest in Christ

Text by Eric Schumacher, © 2002 ThousandTongues.org
Tune: SOLID ROCK by William Bradbury (1816-68)
From <http://www.thousandtongues.org/songs/hymntexts/my-heart-has-found-its-rest-in-christ>

Song Flow: 1,2,R,3,4,R,5,6,R
CCLI Song # 7122681

- 1 Before my restless heart was found,
To worldly treasures it was bound.
The will that seemed so free within
Availed me nothing but to sin.
- 2 The Word of God did set me free,
When I took up his book to read:
“Now arm yourself with Jesus Christ;
Be free from nature’s appetite.”
- R My heart has found its rest in Christ,
My God, My Life, My One Delight!
- 3 Obedience to his command
Came by the power of his hand.
What was the grace that he employed?
Compelling and triumphant joy!
- 4 How sweet it was at once for me
To from my fruitless joys be free.
The pleasures I once hoped would stay,
The Sovereign Joy did drive away!
- 5 All that he gives me by his grace
Will cause me more to seek his face.
No gift he gives will my love take,
Except to love it for his sake.
- 6 Until he calls me to my home,
Or comes again to claim his own,
With zealous tongue I will proclaim

That joy is found in Jesusâ€™™ name!