1 Love unbounded, love perplexing,
All who hear it stand amazedâ€“
I, the sinner, should know justice,
Yet the Savior took my place:
His the dying, mine the living,
His the darkness, mine the light,
His the torment, mine the pleasure,
His the blindness, mine the sight.

C Chorus:
Love revealed at Calvary,
Love that came to rescue me;
Dying I live, losing I gain,
Lord, let me rest, in the love of Calvary.

2 Love revealed in Jesus' suff'ring,
In the great exchange He made,
Proven mighty and eternal
At the triumph of the grave.
His the weeping, mine the singing,
His the hunger, mine the feast,
His rejection won my welcome,
In His cross my endless boast.
