CCLI Song # 5157761

1 See the precious Savior dying
On the cross for ruined man;
There the willing, spotless victim,
Working out redemptionâ€™s plan;
Listen to His final whispers,
â€œFather, oh forgive!â€• He cries.
Then, again He speaks, â€œitâ€™s finishedâ€•
And He bows His head and dies.

C Chorus:
Look unto Him and find a Savior and a Friend,
Look to the cross and see the Lamb who bears our sin.
Here is the love too deep for us to comprehend:
Look to Jesus, look unto Him.

2 With this cruel death before Him,
Every insult, pain, foreseen,
Nothing moved Him from His purpose,
No dismay could intervene;
Even in His darkest hour
Jesus set His hope above.
Oh, the wondrous depths eternal
Of His own almighty love.

3 Love which made Him Prince of Glory,
Come to die the Sinnerâ€™s Friend,
Love beyond the reach of mortalsâ€™
Deepest thoughts to comprehend.
Sinner, make this love your portion,
Love that is so vast and true;
Still unblessed, if unforgiven:

Come, the Savior's calling you.
