1 Verse 1:
When the dawn of hope seems distant
Like a polar, winter night,
I will look to Jesus' brilliance-
He will be my lasting light.
In my thirst and in my hunger,
When the world has left me bare,
I will taste of Calvary's wonder
Which my Savior has prepared.

2 Verse 2:
When the door of true repentance
Is concealed by unbelief,
He will lead me to the entrance
Where I find eternal peace.
When obedience turns to ashes
I will trust and not resign;
Fruit shall bud upon the branches
For my Savior is the vine.

3 Verse 3:
When I wandered from His pasture,
Jesus left the ninety-nine;
He, my Shepherd and my Master
Laid aside His life for mine.
In the hour of bitter weeping
At the tomb of dearest friends
I will hear the Savior calling
"Rise to gladness without end."
